Normandy’s famous apple cider brandy is among the world’s finest brandies. Visit an estate that distills Calvados from the apples grown on its 42 acres of orchards and learn about the production process. Finish with a glass of Calvados and relax over lunch.

Get to know this quintessential French port town that has captivated artists for centuries. Soak up the maritime ambience of its picture-perfect, 17th-century harbor and stroll the narrow streets with your guide to see landmarks like the wooden Church of Sainte-Cathérine crafted by 15th-century shipbuilders.

See Arromanches, site of one of the offshore mulberry harbors, and visit the museum. Walk on Omaha Beach, where Allied forces valiantly advanced across the heavily fortified shoreline under devastating fire to overcome German troops, and see the memorial. Then pay tribute to the fallen while visiting the Normandy American Cemetery. Finally, visit Pointe du Hoc, where U.S. Rangers courageously scaled 100-foot cliffs to destroy German artillery, and examine a German defensive emplacement.

Visit Château du Bec, a beautiful, privately owned, 10th-century castle. Meet one of the owners and walk through the lovely grounds. Then learn about regional cooking traditions from the chef who’ll prepare a special lunch inspired by the recipe books of Claude Monet. After lunch, journey to Le Havre to visit the Musée Malraux of Modern Art. Admire one of France’s largest collections of impressionist paintings, featuring works by Monet, Degas, Renoir, Pisarro, Boudin and other masters.

With one glimpse of Mont-Saint-Michel’s singular silhouette rising above the surrounding flat sands, you’ll know why this UNESCO World Heritage site is considered a wonder of the Western world. On a guided tour, explore this fascinating granite island, and visit the serene abbey and church that have drawn pilgrims for centuries.

Expand your understanding of World War II, D-Day and the Battle of Normandy as you explore the exhibits at this award-winning museum.

View the 11th-century Bayeux Tapestry, a finely stitched artifact nearly 230 feet long, embroidered with more than 50 scenes about the Norman conquest of England. Later, admire the Gothic details of Bayeux’s Notre-Dame Cathedral.

We strive to make a positive, purposeful impact in the communities we visit, whenever possible.

Thoughtful choices to minimize our environmental footprint: eco-friendly transportation, guided walks in lieu of bus tours and less plastic waste.

Ongoing initiatives to support local businesses that employ and benefit people in the community. Curating meaningful experiences by staying in intimately sized locales instead of cities affected by overtourism.

We guarantee to curate meaningful experiences by staying in intimately sized locales instead of cities affected by overtourism.
