

Legal English Program at the University of Colorado Boulder

The Legal English Program is an 8-week summer session program at CU Boulder's International English Center is an accredited intensive course of study designed for international students who plan to attend law school in the U.S., as well as practicing international lawyers. This program is ideal for current and future international lawyers who want to refine their English language skills and expand their understanding of U.S. legal culture.

Courses include:

- Legal Writing and Rhetoric
- Legal Oral Communication
- Understanding Legal Texts
- Electives such as Intercultural Communication and *Public Speaking

- Observe judicial proceedings in state courthouses
- Get real-world experience on projects working with authentic legal texts
- Attend CU Law School events and lectures
- Learn strategies for successful interactions with U.S. legal professionals

Visit

The IEC's Legal English page

for course descriptions, sample schedule, and information about

Conditional Admission

Colorado Law ranks...

#48

in the U.S.

-U.S. News & World Report, 2024

#7

in Environmental Law

- U.S. News & World Report, 2024

I highly recommend the Legal English Program. Taking this course has made me confident in expressing myself in both speaking and writing. If you would like to improve your legal English, this is the best place. Even outside of the classroom, there are so many places worth visiting in Boulder. I made the right decision to study here. – Takahiro Shinano, Japan

For information about the LLM Program at Colorado Law

International English Center

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER