

"THE HAPPIEST PLACE IN AMERICA IS BOULDER, COLORADO"

- SAID NO BLACK PERSON EVER

THIS IS [NOT] WHO WE ARE

DIRECTED AND PRODUCED BY BERET E. STRONG & KATRINA MILLER | A LANDLOCKED FILMS & BLACKAT VIDEO PRODUCTIONS FILM

EDITED BY JOHN TWEEDY | ORIGINAL MUSIC BY LES MILLER | GRAPHIC DESIGN BY SKETCHFOLIO

THIS PROJECT IS SUPPORTED IN PART BY SCINTILLA FOUNDATION, BOULDER ARTS COMMISSION, BOULDER HUMAN RELATIONS COMMISSION, BOULDER COMMUNITY FOUNDATION, PHILANTHROPIECE, AND THE BRETT FAMILY FOUNDATION. DENVER FILM SOCIETY, FISCAL SPONSOR. HISTORICAL PHOTO CREDIT: (1899) COLORADO CHAUTAUQUA ASSOCIATION.

THISISNOTWHOWEAREFILM.COM

COPYRIGHT 2022. LANDLOCKED FILMS & BLACKAT VIDEO PRODUCTIONS. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

THIS IS [NOT] WHO WE ARE FILM SCREENING

Join us for a free film screening and dialogue of "This is (Not) Who We Are". This documentary film explores the gap between Boulder's progressive self-image and the lived experiences of its Black citizens. After the film screening, there will be a panel-led discussion titled "Difficult Dialogues" (a semi-annual series hosted by the Center for Humanities & the Arts) about issues of race, class, and the community. Attendees are encouraged to participate in the conversation.

Date: Thursday, October 27, 2022

Time: 6:45PM - 9PM (film screening begins at 7PM)

Location: Grace Commons Church Chapel (1820 15th Street, Boulder, CO 80302)

To Register:

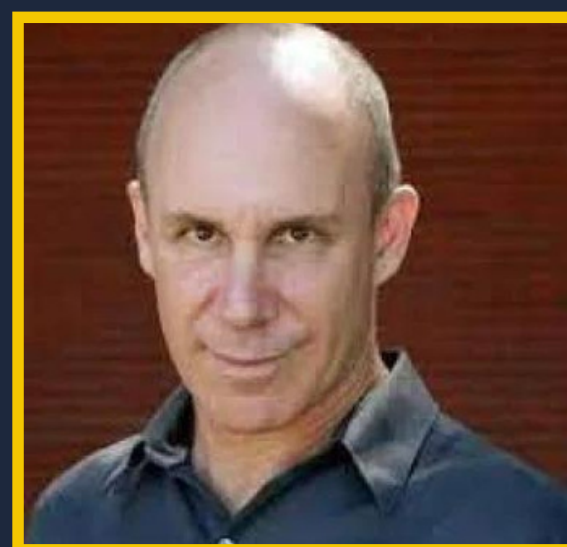

Katrina Miller
Co-Director of the film, "This is [Not] Who We Are"

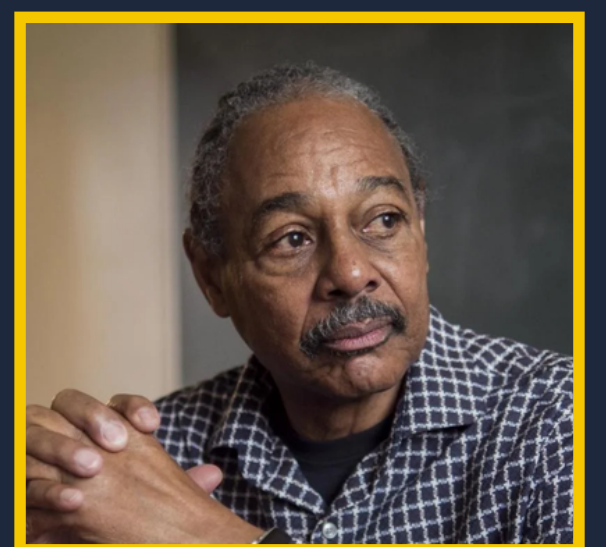

Carl Hofmann
Senior Associate Pastor at Grace Commons Church

Dr. Jennifer Ho
Professor, Director of the Center for Humanities & the Arts

Ami Dayan
Boulder-based Playwright, Director, and Performer

Dr. Thomas Windham
Psychologist, Educator, featured in film, "This is [Not] Who We Are"