

Museum Student Research Award Program

Purpose

To encourage interest in museum activities by providing support for selected students in museum-related studies, including life sciences, earth sciences, history, anthropology and museum-based education and outreach.

Qualifications

University of Colorado-Boulder students with outstanding scholastic record in a related natural history or humanities department. Preference will be given to first time applicants.

Grant Amount

Up to $1,200 for a 12-month period.

Application deadline: March 15

Notification of awards by April 1

For information about submission, visit:

<https://www.colorado.edu/cumuseum/about-museum/awards>

