

Center for Student Involvement (CSI) Advisory Board Application

On behalf of the CU Student Government (CUSG), the Center for Student Involvement (CSI) Advisory Board enhances the role of the CSI in providing strong support for students and student organizations. The Board is composed of seven students, two staff, and several ex-officio/non-voting members who work with the Center for Student Involvement (CSI) Director to ensure the CSI fulfills its mission of providing programs, facilities, and educational opportunities to enrich the campus experience for the CU Boulder community.

The CSI Board meets every other Wednesday from 5:30 pm – 7 pm to create policy, develop creative solutions to challenging issues, and foster leadership skills. During a typical year, the CSI Board routinely discusses issues such as:

- Annual budgets
- Review CSI policies
- Implementation of services, programs, and activities

To apply for a position on the CSI Board, complete the following application and email it to the CSI Board Chair, Clarisse Gionet, at csiboard@colorado.edu interviews will occur during a CSI Board Meeting. The CSI Board Chair will contact you to schedule an interview time.
