

CU Boulder Hillel Marketing Intern

Help CU Boulder Hillel grow their marketing initiatives, campaigns, and print/social medial materials.

As an intern with CU Boulder Hillel, you will:

- Create and design marketing materials (i.e. flyers, logos, advertisements, palm cards, etc.), to be used for all CU Boulder Hillel programs, campaigns, and initiatives, both for print and online
- Work closely with our Social Media Chair to enhance CU Boulder Hillel's digital presence on campus and in the community
- Build a portfolio of marketing materials
- Have experience with Canva, Photoshop, Illustrator (or other design programs) and/or the ability to learn new technology. Prior experience is not required.

This internship will provide you with an in-depth experience in marketing and communications, which is a highly sought after professional skill. You will be supervised by Seth Reder, CU Boulder Hillel's Executive Director.
