

Boulder Jewish Community Center

Youth & Camps Intern

Goal: Assist Boulder JCC in creating and developing new programming. Gain experience in a non-profit that is building Jewish community through Jewish overnight camp.

Hours: 7-10 hours per week at the Boulder JCC (6007 Oreg Ave., Boulder, CO 80303) + possible hours outside of the JCC.

Youth & Camps Purpose and Philosophy

Youth & Camps at the JCC create a vibrant, enriching, and fun summer camp and afterschool camp experience for children 3-17 years old, that is rooted in Jewish values and welcomes children of all backgrounds, races, and religions. We aim to inspire campers to learn, grow, and explore their interests in a safe environment, while creating lasting memories and friendships. This position reports to the Camp Director.

Great candidates are:

- Highly organized
- Detail oriented
- Outgoing
- Experienced in summer camp
- Interested in Jewish Non-Profits
- Ready to learn and follow through on tasks given to them
- Comfortable speaking on the phone
- Skilled in Office software, Google Docs, Social Media platforms, Graphic Design Software
- Able to get to and from the Boulder JCC 2-3 times per week

Youth & Camp's Interns are responsible for:

- Working alongside Camp Director
- Developing new after school and summer programming
- Assisting with marketing and recruitment efforts to register campers for the 2018 summer
- Social media campaigns and blog writing
- Market research into new communities for recruitment
- Setting up recruiting events for Directors and other camp staff members
- Assisting with ongoing office tasks and projects

Boulder Jewish Community Center (JCC)

The Boulder Jewish Community Center's [Boulder JCC] mission is to provide programs and services based in Jewish values and traditions in a place where people of all ages and backgrounds gather to connect, exchange ideas, learn and grow together. As a 501c3, the Boulder JCC is recognized both nationally and internationally for its engagement with next generation Jewish life and connecting families through meaningful experiences and philanthropy. As the community convener and one of the central addresses of Jewish life in Boulder County and beyond, the Boulder JCC is home to one of the best Boulder preschools and day camps as well as baby, toddler, youth, family, teen, young adult, adult, arts and culture, and community programs.