

*The CU Science Education Initiative and
The CU Center for STEM Learning*
would like to invite you to our

End of Year Event

Tuesday, May 7, 2013
UMC Glenn Miller Ballroom

~Breakfast at 8:30AM~

9:00am Kathy Perkins, Director CU SEI
Welcome

9:05am CU's Center for STEM Learning (CSL)
Update and discussion on CSL and its support for faculty engaged in improving undergraduate STEM education

9:12 discussion

9:25am Anne-Barrie Hunter (presenting), Elaine Seymour, Heather Thiry, Tim
Weston, University of Colorado; Mark Connolly, Christine Pfund, Joe Ferrare, University of Wisconsin-Madison
"Talking about Leaving" Revisited: Examining Undergraduate Persistence in STEM Majors Then and Now

9:50 discussion

10:05am Anne-Marie Hoskinson, Andrew Martin, and Nichole Barger,
Department of Ecology and Evolutionary Biology
Ready to flip your classroom? Three recommendations

10:30 discussion

10:45am Poster Session I

11:30am Poster Session II

Posters by your colleagues - faculty, STFs, post-docs, and grad students - on:
Course Reform Efforts and Evolution - developing, implementing, and assessing:
Measuring student learning, interest, and attitudes:
Archiving and sharing resources
And more ....

12:15-1:30pm Lunch and Discussion (posters will remain up)

Please RSVP by Friday May 3, 2012: <http://tinyurl.com/2013-SEI-CSL-EOY>